Art Unit: 1733

1. The amendment filed on December 23, 2003 canceling all claims drawn to the elected invention and presenting only claims drawn to a non-elected invention is non-responsive (MPEP § 821.03). The remaining claims are not readable on the elected invention because the elected invention is the species wherein the adhesive layer containing bubbles is in the form of a foamed body impregnated with the adhesive according to Figure 1 and not the species wherein the adhesive layer containing bubbles is "in the form of a a layer of foamed adhesive composition" according to Figure 1 as is now claimed.

Contrary to applicants arguments, in the original claims applicants used the term bubble-containing adhesive composition layer (see original claim 1 - the bubbles could therefore be in either a supporting body or in the adhesive itself) and not "an adhesive composition layer fabricated from an adhesive composition containing a plurality of bubbles" (which would exclude the elected species because it requires the bubbles to be in the adhesive itself rather than in the supporting body) to generically encompass the elected embodiment of a foamed body impregnated with adhesive (original claim 2), the non-elected embodiment of an adhesive composition including hollow body particles and/or foamed body particles (original claim 3), and the non-elected embodiment of a foamed adhesive composition (original claim 4) (see the specification paragraph 0022). Since claim 1 is now limited to the non-elected foamed adhesive composition embodiment (and thus renders non-elected claim 4 redundant), none of the claims now reads on the elected species.

Since the above-mentioned amendment appears to be a bona fide attempt to reply, applicant is given a TIME PERIOD of ONE (1) MONTH or THIRTY (30) DAYS, whichever is longer, from the mailing date of this notice within which to supply the omission or correction in order to avoid abandonment. EXTENSIONS OF THIS TIME PERIOD UNDER 37 CFR 1.136(a) ARE AVAILABLE.
